

Summer Choice Reading Board for rising 1st graders

Complete at least 5 these activities and return to your 1st grade teacher on September 10th. Each activity should be completed using a different book.

Have a ball reading
this summer!

A book is a gift you can open and again and again.

-Garrison Keillor

S	U	M	M	E	R
Create a new story cover for the book.	Read to a family member.	Go to the library and pick out a book you haven't read.	Illustrate your favorite page.	Write a letter to a character.	Read to a stuffed animal.
Read a fiction (not real) book in bed.	Read a non-fiction (real) book in bed.	Listen to a story online.	Retell the main points of the story to a family member.	Read in a silly voice.	Read to your pet.
Pick a scene in a book you read and act it out.	Make a tent and read with a flashlight in the tent.	Record yourself reading the book.	Call or Zoom a grandparent or family friend and read to them.	Ask the main character a question. What would it be?	Make character puppets for the book.
Read at the beach.	Read on a rainy day.	Read in your favorite place.	Read a book outside.	Read on a weekend.	Read with a friend.

